

Proposed window plan:

This shows the window plan drawing for both the top and bottom windows. As they are rather long windows, I opted for additional small windows on the top of each window which I feel are more practical to open for ventilation whilst minimising noise and poor air coming in from the road.

